GlobalShop will offer the services to all Israeli American Express Cardmembers through Poalim Express Ltd., providing Poalim Express with a SkyPostal-owned, custom website with American Express branding, for shopping using their American Express credit cards to make purchases on the website. Israel has been selected as the first market to roll out this service, due to its high demand for U.S. products and familiarity with online shopping. Other European markets will follow

Poalim Express Ltd, will provide SkyPostal with marketing aimed at promoting GlobalShop's services, using a combination of marketing channels including email promotions, inclusion in Member Benefits communications, statement mailings, co-branding and advertising.

A.J. Hernandez, SkyPostal's COO commented, "We are looking forward to marketing our GlobalShop in the Israeli market, as well as other American Express issuing banks throughout the world. This agreement fits perfectly with our strategy to expand PuntoMio beyond Latin American into other underserved regions with a high demand for US goods."

Irit Batat, Poalim Express's Marketing Director said, "As the first Credit Card company in the region to launch this type of service, we understand the value of a service that eliminates the challenges associated with cross border e-commerce.
